SECOND PRIZE IN EACH DISTRICT

This Is the Grand Prize

The candidate getting the highest vote, irrespective of districts, will be given this handsome Studebaker Touring Car or $2,000 in Cash.

20 per cent. commission will be paid to all contestants who do not win a prize, and are active up to the close of the contest

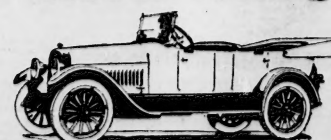

Second Subscriptions Count Up Fast

If you have run out of territory, you can safely start going back a second time to the subscribers who gave you three or six months, and in many instances you can add one or two years to the first year. These "second payments" are great vote getters. A second and third year (two years) added to a year given earlier in the contest gives you from 160,000 to 300,000 more votes. A few of these will help out wonderfully.

The Subscriber

who guesses the correct or nearest the correct number of votes that will win the Grand Prize will be given a prize of $100 in cash.

Council Opens Sessions on Gas Proposals With Demands that Col. Kincaid Smith Put up Cash Deposits Before Plebiscite

"I hardly know whether our proceedings today were more in the nature of a circus or a dog-fight," remarked a member after the special meeting of council on Friday.

"It was one of the old-time gas meetings with a little added," was the rejoinder of another alderman.

In other words, there was plenty of action. No other business but "gas" was dealt with, and motions, amendments and amendments to the amendments followed in quick succession. Voting became enlivened, plans of procedure were followed and discarded as occasion served. Aldermen took exception to each other's mode of address. There was a lively session between Ald. East and Col. Kincaid Smith, which at one time threatened the spectacle of four aldermen, the mayor and the council all attempting to speak at the same time.

In the first place the whole business was informal, and was brought about by the following: The mayor had received a reply from the council in answer to his question, to the effect that the council was not prepared to consider the cancellation of the leases held by the Northern Alberta Natural Gas Development company. Also Col. Kincaid Smith came along with an amendment to his previous proposals. Being anxious to get these matters before the aldermen, and there not being time for the proper notices to be sent out for a special meeting, the mayor called an informal gathering of the council on Friday, it being understood that anything decided upon could be ratified on Monday next.

The Result.

Before proceeding to the matter of details, the term total of the result arrived at was this:

Council adopted a resolution, namely: That Col. Kincaid Smith be called upon to deposit the sum of $15,000 as security for the cancellation of the leases held by the Northern Alberta Natural Gas Development company. Also Col. Kincaid Smith be called upon to deposit the sum of $15,000 as security for the cancellation of the leases held by the Northern Alberta Natural Gas Development company.

Lloyd-George Plans to Fight Rebellious Unionist Wing in Coalition By Straight Party

Hopes to Gather into Ministerial Fold All Moderate Elements from Both Parties—Sir Gordon Hewart Lays Down Plan for Strengthening of Following

LONDON, Jan. 20.—Indications from today's meeting of the cabinet conference are that Mr. Lloyd George has decided to fight the rebellious unionist wing of the coalition, which has been trying to force the prime minister to resign the power of veto to the House of Lords.

PONTIFF SHOWS FRESH CENTRES OF PNEUMONIA

Benedict's Temperature Is Higher—Breathing Hard and Difficult

UNAIDED OF DEATH

Mind of High Divine Is Clear—Midnight Hour Brought Respitelessness

LONDON, Jan. 21.—An Exchange Telegram dispatch from Rome says that a telephone message from Rome at noon today this morning was to the effect that Pope Benedict was in great pain and was not expected to live throughout the morning. He had ceased to recognize anyone.

ROME, Jan. 21.—Pope Benedict early this morning lay in bed, his life and death. Whether the Pontiff could survive the night was considered problematical by those familiar with his condition.

Fresh centres of pneumonia infection have developed in the lungs of the patient, and the condition from which he suffers still persists. His temperature shortly after midnight was 101 degrees.

Breathing was hard and difficult. The pneumonia was localized during Friday, as centered in the Pontiff's right lung, but neither lung was functioning as the physicians desired, in consequence of an immense accumulation of pus.

Through all his sufferings, the mind of the Pontiff remains bright and he is described as exceedingly cheerful and unaffected by death.

ROME, Jan. 20.—"If I please the Lord I shall work as for His church, and I shall be content."

Constituents Must Order Resignation Before Seat Can Be Opened Up Again

(By C. H. STOUT, Special Dispatch To The Bulletin)

CALGARY, Jan. 20.—The federal constituency will be opened in Alberta for Hon. Charles Stewart if the members-elect follow out the policy laid down by the U.F.A. convention here before adjourning for the day at a late hour last night.

Not only did the delegates vote unanimously for a resolution declaring against the resignation of any Farmer member, unless so requested by his constituents, but the audience cheered their vote to the top of their voices.

By applying themselves strictly to business, the convention managed to get through considerable work before closing at 11 o'clock. The session today will be held in the Alhambra Theatre, and it is planned to finish by 4 o'clock in the evening in order that the delegates remaining for the extra day may leave for home on the evening and night trains.

After struggling over the question for nearly two hours during the afternoon and finally deciding that a resolution should be drafted calling for a reorganization of the Canadian Council of Agriculture on a more representative basis, the convention turned the proposal down for later action.

President Wood had risen to characterize it as unwise and recommended against its adoption.

The proposals, thus turned down, pleased the crowd, so that the proposed amendment of the commercial associations to a basis of one for each ten rural members, and the commercial associations be given the right to elect one member to the board of directors, and the maximum amount of relief may be given to the rural members.

"It would do no good to have this resolution," declared President Wood, "and it might do harm. We have to be careful of our own interests. We can overcome these difficulties by the use of the law, and we can do so without the expense of a general election."

After the convention adjourned, the delegates were met by a group of men who were waiting for them. They were met by a group of men who were waiting for them.
